Brigadier General Joseph C. Lutz, USA
Commandant, United States Army
Institute for Military Assistance
Fort Bragg, North Carolina 28307

Dear General Lutz:

Thank you for the copy of the "Proceedings for the Twentieth International Affairs Symposium" conducted by the School of International Studies at the United States Army Institute for Military Assistance. The reports of the regional workshops contain useful syntheses of significant problems facing the United States, and General Graham's thoughtful remarks struck forcefully at some of the key issues of our times. We have passed the "Proceedings" to our Office of Training and Education for use in certain of our training programs.

We enjoy having representation of the Institute, such as the Foreign Area Officer group, visit us while in the Washington area. We look forward to continued exchange in the future.

Sincerely,

Deputy Director
for Administration
